🎄 All courses served with your choice of valuables 🎄

Your Car and all it's trimmings

Car thief classic

Car left unlocked, with windows open Always lock doors and windows and use a steering lock

Starter's orders

Keys left in ignition Never leave keys in the ignition and the car unattended

Santa's surprise

Presents on passenger seats Keep presents out of sight, if they can be seen they can be stolen

Hot wired saloon

Parked in a dark car park Leave your vehicle in a well lit location, or you could make a thief's Christmas

Takeaway car keys and handbags served in handy places Never leave keys or valuables where they can be seen from outside (like the hall table)

Your House on a plate

Festive parcels

Presents under the tree
Keep presents out of sight

Holiday special

Served in the darkness of an obviously empty house.
Leave lights and a radio on timer switches and ask a friend or relative to collect your mail

Open sesame

Served with a UPVC door that was not properly locked with the key.
Always lock your UPVC door with the key and then remove the key to a safe place where you can find it in an emergency

Family jewels

Served in an empty jewellery box that was formerly filled with gold Make sure your family heirlooms are stored in a secure non portable safe or facility

Your portable property
To take away

On your bike

Bikes not secure and marked Lock bikes away and mark them with your postcode and house number

Shed surprise

A variety of tools Secure your shed with a bolt and padlock and consider fitting an alarm

Devastating date dessert

An unattended festive drink. It takes seconds for a drink to be spiked and the consequences can be devastating. Never leave your drink unattended

Nick-abocker glory

With sour taste Buying stolen goods is a criminal offence and carries a sentence of up to 14 years. If you are offered a bargain, ensure that the source is genuine
